About the play:

"Buck, a well-grown dog with thick hair, lived in a big house in the sun-kissed Santa Clara Valley. He had a happy life, and nothing was missing.

Until.

Why is it so cold here? What is the white matter that falls from the sky on my snout? Where are they all rushing to? Which animal gives such a smell? Why are they wrapping my body with belts? And what is howling from far away?

On the wolf's trail is the author's adaptation of the famous novel Call of the Wild by Jack London. It is a theater composition for six actors, one drummer, ten microphones, four dogs, and one deer that tells the story of the domesticated dog that was stolen and sold to work in Yukon province in Canada during the Gold rush on Klondike. So to the place, where are roots of Buck's breed. Buck's journey is full of distress and surprises - not only from unknown environment but also from his so far unknown spirit."
